Re: Use of Diversity Statements for Ladder-Rank Recruitments

Dear Colleagues,

California’s demographic diversity is increasing, yet UC’s faculty diversity has not kept pace. Increasing diversity to better reflect California’s population is fundamental to our mission as a public institution and imperative to achieving our full potential and impact. It is university policy that a candidate’s race, gender, ethnicity, or other personal characteristics not be considered in evaluation or selection of faculty. However, to attract candidates who will contribute to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion, search committees may consider past or proposed contributions to diversity in the overall review process. In partnership with ADVANCE, we offer the following guidance for upcoming ladder rank faculty recruitments.

We now recommend that a “Statement of Contributions to Diversity” be requested of all applicants to ladder-rank faculty recruitments. This allows search committees and hiring departments to evaluate each candidate’s past and/or planned contributions to diversity. Unless the recruiting department opts out of using the “Statement of Contributions to Diversity”, recruitment documents should be composed in a way that strongly encourages candidates to complete the statement. However, it is important to remember that applicants should not be required to provide the statement.

Academic Affairs has a new informational webpage at http://academicaffairs.ucdavis.edu/diversity/equity_inclusion/index.html that includes information about why we request diversity statements, as well as guidelines for writing one. In UC Recruit, the “Statement of Contributions to Diversity” is currently made available to applicants as the default, and the default description of the document has been updated to direct the applicant to this webpage.

Nationwide, universities like ours are realizing that applicant and interview pools can be enriched by providing applicants an opportunity to discuss their contributions to diversity, and by evaluating such contributions as an important component of excellence. Although we are for now only encouraging departments to offer faculty position applicants this opportunity, it is also possible for colleges and schools to require this of all recruitments within their units. Attached is a step-by-step “how to” for changing or restoring UC Recruit settings so that departments can add the “Statement of Contributions to Diversity” in their online recruitment documents. For your convenience, I have also attached a reminder on how to advertise our campus’s generous Work Life Programs in ladder-rank recruitments.

HOW TO: REQUEST A DIVERSITY STATEMENT IN LADDER RANK RECRUITMENTS

After you have set up a basic recruitment in UC Recruit, you may select “Configure for Online Applicant Management”. This is the step in which you will establish what documents are requested, whether they are optional or required, how many reference contacts and/or letters are required, and a few other configurations. These configurations cannot be modified once you have received your first applicant.

If the “Statement of Contributions to Diversity” needs to be added to a recruitment, follow the steps below. Note: applicant requirements cannot be edited after the first application has been initiated.

- Locate the recruitment and select “Update Online Applicant Requirements”.
- Select “Documents & References” from the left-hand column.
- Select the “Add” button at the top of the document list. A pop-up window will open.
- Enter in the “Document name” field: Statement of Contributions to Diversity.
- Enter in the “Optional description” field: Please visit http://academicaffairs.ucdavis.edu/diversity/equity_inclusion/index.html for information about why diversity statements are requested and guidelines for writing a diversity statement.
- Select the correct radio button that corresponds with whether or not your department wishes to make this a Required or an Optional document.
- Select the “Add” button in the pop-up. This will add the document to the list.
- Newly added documents appear automatically at the bottom of the list. Use the “Reorder” button, next to “Add”, to change the order of how the documents will be viewed by the applicants.

Here is an image of how this configuration will appear to the applicant:
REMINDER: ADVERTISING WORK-LIFE PROGRAM IN LADDER RANK RECRUITMENTS

We want to remind you about the opportunity to advertise the UC Davis work life programs in your faculty recruitments. We have provided a summary of our programs at the bottom of this message. Recruit is a perfect opportunity to include this information in your faculty recruitment advertisements. You may also want to use this language on your departmental website postings.

How to: When setting up your faculty recruitments in UC Recruit (https://recruit.ucdavis.edu/), you may enter the information below in the recruitment "Description" field (see image below). The character limit in this field is very large, so many departments are also pasting the entire faculty posting in this field. Even if you have already set up the recruitment and received applications, you can still edit the Description field in Recruit. I have created a sample in the training environment (https://training.recruit.ucdavis.edu/apply/JPF00274). If you need assistance, please review the help manual (https://recruit.ucdavis.edu/analyst/help) or contact ap-recruit@ucdavis.edu.

Information to include in the description field in UC Recruit for faculty recruitments only:

UC Davis supports Family-friendly recruitments. UC Davis covers travel expenses for a second person to accompany a faculty recruitment candidate who is a mother (or single parent of either gender) of a breast or bottle-feeding child less than two years of age. At UC Davis, a Work Life program has been in place since January 2003. A group of Faculty Advisors for Work Life was established in 2007 to help publicize and inform the faculty about the programs, policies, and resources associated with work life/life changes. This group of advisors represents various academic units (colleges, schools, divisions) on the campus. The following summarizes the programs and updated UC policy: http://academicaffairs.ucdavis.edu/programs/work-life/index.html

The UC Davis Partner Opportunities Program (POP) is a service designed to support departments and deans offices in the recruitment and retention of outstanding faculty. Eligibility is limited to full-time Academic Senate Ladder Rank faculty, Cooperative Extension Specialists, and in a few instances, members of the Senior Management Group.
